“Love is a fruit in season at all times, and within reach of every hand.”

–Mother Teresa

-Vegetables-

Winter greens are in the market and are beautiful in this cold winter season. Green and dyno kale along with collared and dandelion greens are bursting with color. Green and red chards, all colors of beets, hard squashes along with many root vegetables- celery root, turnips, and parsnips are also in full swing.

-Potatoes & Onions-

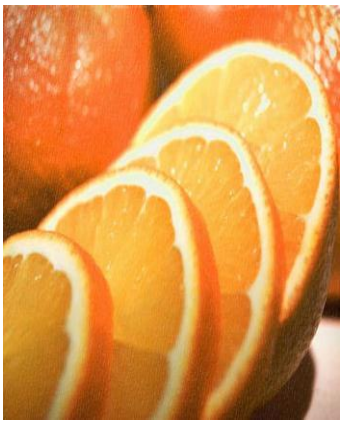
Specialty potatoes such as banana fingerling, red fingerling, bintje, and mixed German butter ball are all great. Nice red and Yukons are available in all varieties of sizes. Onions- red & white pearl, boiler and chipolini are around!

-Mushrooms-

We deliver fresh mushrooms such as enoki, crimini, oyster, white, portabello, portabalini, shitaki, chef mix daily. A full line of dry and seasonal mushrooms are also available upon order.

-Tomatoes-

Slicing and Roma tomatoes continue to be on limited supply due to a change in crop growing areas. Nogales and Florida tomatoes will be hitting the market this month. All varieties of cherry tomatoes are del cabo lable out of Mexico and are very expensive. A red grape cherry tomatoe is a better option.

-Fruits-


Texas grapefruits, juicing oranges, satsumas, cuties, and manderines are all in market and filled with flavor. Pomageranties and fuyu persimmons are in season. Cara cara and blood oranges are avalible along with myer lemons and meryellen limes.
